

CONTENTS

FOREWORD
I. THE LOGIC OF FREEDOM AND THE LOGIC OF JUSTICE
THE POST-NIETZSCHEAN WAVE
Thought after Nietzsche
Overcoming Platonism
The Transgressiveness of the Wave
The Spectral Setup
TWO LOGICS OF PHILOSOPHICAL THOUGHT
THE STRUCTURE AND FORMULA OF PLATONISM
SPLITTING LOGOS: LABEL, QUESTION, ESOTERICISM
THE FORMALISM OF DIFFERENCE
AN ASYMMETRIC LAYOUT OF THE POLITICAL
POLITICAL HETEROGENEITY
Turning away from Hierarchies
The Politics of Friendship
Esotericism
TIME, HISTORY, EVENT
INTENSIVE AND 'NAKED' LIFE
SUMMARY: TERMINOLOGY, MAIN HYPOTHESIS
APPENDIX. POPPER AND ANALYTICAL ANTI-PLATONISM
II. POLITICS AS UNDERSTOOD BY THE GREEKS
THE DIVERSITY OF THE POLITICAL
THE POLITICAL WITHOUT POLIS
Colonization
Autochthony
Ethnogenesis
Greeks and Barbarians
Religion
NOMOS OF ANCIENT GREECE
Unformalised Law
The Priority of Speech, the Specifics of Legal Proceedings
Politics in Athens and the Logic of Lawmaking

POLITICAL WORD

Myths

Drama and Performance

Poetry, History, and Rhetoric

Knowledge and the Arts

The Regime of the Present. Strong Positions of Political Logic

PHILOSOPHY AS POWER AND KNOWLEDGE

THE SOPHISTICAL ANTITHESIS OF NATURE/LAW

THE PHILOSOPHY OF THE LATE FIFTH CENTURY BC

THE COURT AGAINST SOCRATES

A POLITICAL BIOGRAPHY OF PLATO

III. PLATO'S POLITICAL LOGIC

WRITINGS OF THE EARLY AND MIDDLE PERIODS

The Apology of Socrates

Gorgias

Menexenus

Protagoras

Meno

Cratylus

Alcibiades

Euthyphro

Phaedo

Symposium

Phaedrus

Theaetetus

Hippias Major

ELEMENTS OF POLITICAL THOUGHT

INTERPRETING THE 'STATE'

Title

Redactions

Participants

Time and Location

The 'Old Order'

Cephalus

Polemarch

Thrasymachus

Freedom and a New Beginning

The Radical Position of the Justice Problem

An Analogy between Person and Polis

'First Draft.' Saving Normality

'Second Draft.' Saving the Political

Raising Watchmen

Territory and Economics. 'The Honest Lie'

The Triumph of Geometric Justice

Erotic Transgression

Philosophic Power. The 'New Order.'

In Response to Glaucon: Philosophical Justice

In Response to Adeimantus: Philosophical Sovereignty

The Idea of Good. The Allegory of the Sun and Line.

Overlapping

Waves

Allegory of the Cave. The Upbringing of a Philosopher

Metamorphoses of Political 'Regimes'

Pure Pleasures

'The Ancient Difference between Philosophy and Poetry'

The Final Myth: The Triumph of Platonism

The Feasibility of the Kallipolis

The Temporality of Politics

IV. OVERCOMING PLATONISM

MARTIN HEIDEGGER. PLATO'S LESSON ON TRUTH

The Etymological Argument

The 'Platonic Moment'

'The Untold in his Told'

Marking Speech and the State of the Subversive Question

HANNAH ARENDT. 'PHILOSOPHY AND POLITICS'

Act I: The Aesthetization of the Political

Act II: Hidden Politization and the Philosophy of Friendship

Act III: Eliminating the Political

Act IV: Philosophy's Inappropriate Interference

A New Interpretation of the Allegory of the Cave

Pathos of Philosophy

Final Conclusions

Freedom and Sovereignty (the essay What Is Freedom?)

Lectures on Kant's Political Philosophy

Platonism and Realism in Arendt's Thought

LEO STRAUSS. THE PROBLEM OF SOCRATES / PLATO'S REPUBLIC

GILLES DELEUZE. PLATO AND THE SIMULACRUM

JACQUES DERRIDA. PLATO'S PHARMACY

MICHEL FOUCAULT. THE GOVERNMENT OF SELF AND OTHERS (I-II)

Part I: The Government of Self and Others (1982/1983)

Part II: The Courage of Truth (1983/1984)

CONCLUSION

BIBLIOGRAPHY