

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Part 1. Demographic transition

Demographic reality in the light of theory and ideology.....	7
The demographic revolution is changing the reproductive strategy of Homo sapiens	18
Civilisation, culture and demography	42
This is the key to the other lock	66
Are there alternatives to having no alternative?.....	74
After the demographic transition: Divergence, convergence or diversity?	92

Part 2. Russia in the face of demographic changes

Incomplete Demographic Modernization in Russia.....	115
A new stage of Russian demographic development	147
Is Russia's population being saved or lost	163
Mortality in Russia: The second epidemiological revolution that never was	225
The family in search of itself.....	261
In praise of aging	271
Pension reform: At the intersection of economics and demography.....

Part 3. Global demographic upheaval

Global determinants of low fertility	299
International migration — an imperative of the globalized world	319
In the same boat as the West	325
Multipolarity and demography.....	334
The end of North-centrism	347

Part 4. International migration in the new demographic context

Migration in Russia: Its perception and socio-political consequences	365
Should migration statistics record the ethnicity of migrants?	375
Migration, migrant-phobia and the limits of tolerance.....	382

Part 5. The Land of Demography and its inhabitants

The difficult revival of demography.....	413
The census in Russia: Lessons of history.....	436